

ENDERBY

Big City Excitement. Small Town Spirit.

ENDERBY & DISTRICT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

700 Railway St., Box 1000, Enderby, BC V0E 1V0

ph: 250-838-6727 fax: 250-838-0123

recreation services: 250-838-2665

Toll Free: 1-877-213-6509

Email: info@enderbychamber.com

Website: www.enderbychamber.com

Adventure awaits you all year long in Enderby!

Known for its natural beauty and small town spirit, Enderby offers the amenities of a larger urban center within a small community known for its first-class hospitality.

Perfectly situated on the banks of the Shuswap River, visitors to Enderby can take a refreshing dip and kayak or canoe with the spectacular Enderby Cliffs as a backdrop. For the adventurous, a hike to the top of the Cliffs provides a panoramic view and a breathtaking location for a picnic. Spend the afternoon on a family-friendly learning adventure at the Enderby Museum & Archives or the Kingfisher Interpretive Centre.

Belvidere Park

Waterwheel Park

Enderby Events

- June 25-27 Singin' Good News Southern Gospel Music Festival
- June 27 Music by the River
- July 1 Canada Day Pancake Breakfast, Parade, Kid's Games, Classic Car Show, Concessions
- July 1-4 Funtastic Slowpitch Tournament, Beverage Garden, Concession & Music
- July 23-25 Enderby Summer Arts Festival
- July 25 Music by the River
- August 29 Music by the River
- Sept. 26 BC Rivers Day and Music by the River

Attractions

Enderby Cliffs Hiking Trail
Kingfisher Environmental Interpretive Centre
Starlight Drive-In Theatre
Enderby & District Museum
Jim Watt Heritage River Walk
Golf Courses
Campgrounds
Canoeing, Kayaking, and Swimming
Open Air Market
Snowmobiling and Cross-Country Skiing Trails
Vibrant Arts Community
Unbeatable Shopping and Eating - Exciting Nightlife

Nestled within picturesque downtown Enderby are numerous boutiques stocking designer clothing, jewellery and antiques, gift shops and restaurants that will tantalize your tastebuds with locally grown ingredients and cuisine ranging from the rustic to the exotic.

As winter overtakes the fall, visitors to Enderby can experience a variety of new adventures. Snowmobiles roar across Hunters Range, where 90 kilometres of groomed trails attract enthusiasts from far and wide. At Larch Hills, 120 kilometres of trail await the avid cross-country skier.

Only in Enderby can you shop at a boutique and browse pioneer and aboriginal artefacts at the Museum in the morning, hike the Cliffs in the afternoon, consume a phenomenal meal in the evening, and enjoy live music and the drive-in theatre into the night.